Dear John,

Thank you very much for the wonderful work you did organising the recent fundraising auction held at the Warkworth A&P Show.

There was such an amazing range of prizes from some fantastic companies. With the large number of companies involved I know it would have been a huge amount of work to get that level of support for the event. I'm aware there would also have been a long list of logistics to organise for the auction itself and the superb job you did was reflected in the extremely pleasing amount raised on the day.

Thanks once again for the high level of commitment you have shown to our organisation, demonstrated by the fact you've organised this event two consecutive years.

The commitment of people like yourself is a vital key to the success of RNZFB's Guide Dog Services work.

Kind regards,
